THE NUMBER OF THE STARS.

About Six Thousand May Be Seen by the Naked Eye.

The total number of stars one can see will depend very largely upon the clearness of the atmosphere and the keenness of the eye.

There are in the whole celestial sphere about six thousand stars visible to an ordinarily good eye. Of these, however, we can never see more than a fraction at any one time, because a half of the sphere is always below the horizon.

If we could see a star in the horizon as easily as in the zenith a half of the whole number, or 3,000, would be visible on any clear night.

But stars near the horizon are seen through so great a thickness of atmosphere as greatly to obscure their light, and only the brightest ones can there be seen.

As a result of this obscuration it is not likely that more than 3,000 stars can ever be taken in at a single view by any ordinary eye. About 3,000 other stars are so near the south pole that they never rise in our latitudes. Hence, out of 6,000 supposed to be visible, only 4,000 ever come within the range of our vision, unless we make a journey toward the equator.

As telescopic power is increased, we still find stars of fainter and fainter light. But the number cannot go on increasing forever in the same ratio as with the brighter magnitudes, because if it did the whole sky would be a blaze of starlight.

If telescopes with powers far exceeding our present ones were made, they would no doubt show new stars of the twentieth, twenty-first, etc., magnitudes. But it is highly probable that the number of such successive orders of stars would not increase in the same ratio as is observed in the eighth, ninth and tenth magnitudes, for example.

The enormous labor of estimating the number of stars of such classes will long prevent the accumulation of statistics on this question; but this much is certain, that in special regions of the sky, which have been carefully examined by various telescopes of successively increasing apertures, the number of new stars found is by no means in proportion to the increased instrumental power.

If this is found to be true elsewhere, the conclusion may be that, after all, the stellar system can be experimentally shown to be of finite extent, and to contain only a finite number of stars.

In the whole sky an eye of average power will see about 6,000 stars, as I have just said. With a telescope this number is greatly increased, and the most powerful telescopes of modern times will show more than 60,000,000 stars. Of this number not one out of 100 has ever been catalogued at all.

In all, 314,336 stars, from the first to the ninth and one-half magnitudes, are contained in the Northern sky, or about 600,000 in both hemispheres. All of these can be seen with a three-inch object glass.—Century.

PRESERVING THE DEAD.

Frequent Failure of Embalming—Value of Ice in Post-Mortem Treatment.

Abraham Lincoln's remains were deposited of their naturalness by a crude process of embalming. Gen. Grant's features were swollen and distorted when on exhibition in City Hall, and the same results seem to come from this "science of preservation of the dead" wherever practiced.

Lincoln looked as if his skin had been tanned black, and the excuse was that all who are shot to death look that way. It seems a pity that the hundreds of thousands who had a glance at the immortal Lincoln in his casket should have been shocked by what they saw.

Ice is the best preserver, after all. It leaves color in the face, and restores the appearance of health even where sickness resulted in emaciation.

Some people object to ice upon the ground that if the dead be not dead, but merely in a trance, the ice would kill them surely. To be sure if in a trance the ice would settle the whole business, but trances are like miracles. They have occurred, but do not occur any more.

There was a widespread, impressive, and painful rumor years ago that the body of a distinguished politician, who died in his bathtub, had been found turned over in the coffin when his relatives were about to take his remains from the receding vault of Greenwood for burial.

It was not verified, and is now pinned up alongside of the legend that a body of a man that looked just like him was, for a consideration, furnished to the relatives of John C. Colt, the murderer of Adams, the printer, and put into his cell by bribed keepers and passed off as that of the suicide and homicide, who had escaped.—New York World.

ONE PENNY A SEAT.

The Chair-Letting Industry in Hyde Park.

There are thousands of chairs in Hyde Park, London, which can be hired for a penny each, and their history is an interesting one.

It dates back to shortly after the battle of Waterloo, when an English general, who had done good service, found himself reduced to extreme poverty. The government of that day acknowledged his past services by granting him and his heirs forever the right of letting on hire chairs at Hyde Park.

The general gathered his resources and started with a hundred chairs. There are now over 27,000 chairs, the income from them amounting to over $50,000 a year.

The Wiggles of Wahfulness.

J. Lian had an uncomfortable way of waking before light and expecting the family to rise with her at what they considered an unbearably early hour.

"Lillian, you must lie still and try to sleep," said her mother one morning, when this early bird began to chirp.

"I'll try," said the child, and so she did, but it was to no purpose. In five minutes she was sitting up in bed playing with her little pink toes. This time her mother growing impatient, as sleepy people have been known to do, summarily extinguished her under the bed clothes, saying in despair:

"Lillian, I told you to try once more to go to sleep!"

"I know it, mamma," said truthful Lillian, "and I did try, but the wiggles in me as I can't keep still!"

Measures in Relation to Yellow Fever Receive Attention.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The House amendment to the Senate bill, appropriating $100,000 to aid the yellow fever sufferers, being laid before the Senate, Edmunds said it would be examined. He was very much afraid it missed the point aimed at. That was, the capacity to use any of the money in aid of those sick and in distress, and in danger of starvation. In the hope that something better could be done, he moved that the Senate non-concur in the House amendment, and asked for a conference.

So ordered.

Call offered a resolution instructing

the Committee on Epidemic

Diseases to consider and report

before the adjournment of this session of Congress such additional legislation as may be deemed necessary and useful to prevent the importation of contagious or infectious diseases from foreign countries on the coast boundaries of the United States, and prevent and suppress it in interstate commerce, and for the subsistence of such persons as may be detained by public authorities. It was ordered that when the Senate adjourns to-day it be till Monday next.

BLOODSHED.

Republican Politicians Have a Desperate Encounter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—At the headquarters of the Republican County Committee this evening, while the returns from the primary election were being counted, W. J. Harrington, a notorious character about the city, entered a protest against the returns of the Twenty-ninth District.

Harrington then drew a revolver and began abusing Martin J. Kelly,

Fire Commissioner, when some unknown person fired a shot from the rear. General confusion ensued and several shots were fired promiscuously. David Donahue was shot in the heart and died in about an hour. A Christianson was shot in the chest and will die.

Kelly and Harrington were also shot, but not fatally.

A Woman Convicted of Murder.

MEDINA, O., September 27.—A sensational trial came to an end yesterday in the conviction of Mrs.

Mary Garrett of murder in the first degree. Last fall this woman was arrested, charged with killing her two imbecile stepdaughters.

The victims were of mature age,

but weak mentally. The Garrett woman, tired of caring for them, planned to rid herself of the burden.

One night the farmhouse was discovered to be on fire. The neighbors extinguished the flames, which came from a small room used as a sleeping apartment by the daughters. Both women were dead, having been suffocated by the dense smoke. Leaves and other rubbish on the floor indicated that some one had deliberately kindled the fire. The stepmother was arrested on the day following.

HARRISON'S RECEPTIONS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—General

Harrison's visitors to-day, like those of yesterday, will come from the States of Ohio and Indiana. The General received the usual number of callers at his house this morning. He continues in excellent health, notwithstanding the great tax upon his vitality in hand-shaking.

Many veterans and visitors from Columbus, Ohio, remained in the city over night and left home by morning trains, among them were Judge John A. Bingham and General George Wright, who were General Harrison's guests

last evening.

On the Border.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 28.—

A dispatch from Rio Grande City

says: The Sheriffs of Cameron,

Hidalgo and Zapata, whose posse make a force of 150 men, arrived here to-day. Our own Sheriff,

Shely, has about 100 fighting men.

Colonel Clendenning has been authorized to bring troops from Ringgold barracks, if needed.

Further trouble is not probable in the face of the present display of force, and all is quiet. Garza is resting easier, and it is hoped he will recover.

A Close Call.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—

Shortly after 12 o'clock this morning

Officer Glenns, while walking along Russ street, was seized from behind by a man. At the same moment a shot was fired over his head. He drew his own revolver and fired, wounding the man seriously.

The man is not known, nor is his motive for the attack.

CONVICT LABOR.

A Tennessee Contract which Cleve-

will be Asked to Explain.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Senator

Harris of Tennessee is having quite a lively time of it down in his district over the nomination of ex-

Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Atkins, as his rival for Senatorial honors, and is making things hot.

He has a backing of plenty of money, and that is a powerful factor in Tennessee politics. An interesting feature of this little fight within the fold is the power behind

Mr. Atkins. The boodle which is being so freely used in his behalf is all coming from that source, and that is none other than the contractor for convict labor at the Tennessee State Prison. His name is Morrow, and he is the same man who was given the contract for carrying supplies to the Indians.

Mr. Atkins gave him this contract.

It calls for the constant use of 675

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to overcome the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

DON'T KNOW STEWART.

No May Have Been Knocked Out But Does Not Know Defeat.
The Idaho Avalanche has the following to say relative to Senator Stewart and his annexation scheme: Senator Stewart of Nevada, will not recognize that he is making a fight against Idaho that he will lose. He still persists in having Northern Idaho annexed to Washington Territory when he hopes to have the rest of Idaho annexed to Nevada. Such annexation would make Nevada a grand State, but such good luck will not befall the sagebrush commonwealth, for the reason that Hon. F. T. Dubois, ably assisted by Governor Stevenson, "knocked" the wily Senator from Nevada, once, and from appearance Mr. Dubois will do so again. The matter came up in the Senate on the 4th inst., when a letter written by our delegate, was read, which must have been conclusive upon the subject of annexation. The reasons, some twelve in number, why the sagebrush should not be given to Washington Territory were clearly set forth in that letter, which no doubt was so convincing to the Senators, that the bill will never pass the Senate in its original form. Mr. Dubois is to be congratulated for his former success in defeating the bill, and is certainly to be thanked for the anti-annexationist for the efforts he has made in holding Idaho together.

PIUTES ABROAD.

Nevada's Dandy Mous and Daughters.
The Plutes who have been engaged in picking hops in the fields of Sacramento county, Cal., gave a grand farrow barbecue, war-dance, etc., Wednesday at Menke's ranch, near Brighton. The ranchers in the vicinity furnished an ample supply of food, and "Lo, the poor Indian" stowed away sufficient grub to keep him alive until the pine-nut season here opens. The Sacramento Bee says the bucks and squaws were gorgeously arrayed for the occasion, and about twenty men and half a dozen women took part in the dance, which was carried on in a circle around which stood the white spectators. The Indians went through all manner of extravagant antics, keeping time to a low, guttural music, "music" furnished by the manipulation of some bamboo instruments. After the dance a collection was taken up, and then several of the chiefs made brief speeches, promising to return next year and pick hops.

You're Mistaken, Wah!

W. R. Chamberlain tells the following good story on the moke who is connected with the wheel of fortune, which was on "exhibition" at the State Fair Grounds last week and is now reaping the dollar drop of the crangers of Carson Valley: This lively moke was summing himself in front of the Ormsby House in Carson last Wednesday when a tourist, with a regulation grip-sack in hand, approached him, and in an authoritative tone of voice, remarked, as he handed him a quarter of a dollar: "Here, you; take this upstairs to my room." The descendant of Ham was for a moment speechless from surprise and indignation, but finally sprang from his chair, and with a voice that awakened the echoes in the Carson Valley village, replied: "You're mistaken in yer man, sah; I've a gambler."

Will of Anastasia Patten.

The will of the late Anastasia Patten has been filed in the Register's office at Washington. It is dated September 23, 1879. She leaves $20,000 to her brother, J. P. Flannery of Gold Hill, Nev., and a like sum to her sister, Ellen Hamlin. To Mr. St. Mary's Hospital of San Francisco, she leaves $5,000 to be used for the relief of the poor of that city and county. The remainder of her estate she leaves to her children, and appointed those who have attained their majority as executors.

Plant Cuttings Now.

The botanist of the Virginia Enterprise discourses as follows: From now till the 1st of October is the best time for root cuttings of roses and other plants. The ground is warm and the nights are getting longer and cooler, and the plants that have stopped growing will start out anew. Take cutting from plants that are dormant, selecting good round wood; make a bed where it can be readily watered, and plant your cuttings there. Then keep the ground wet and in a few days they will begin to put out leaves.

Sensation Again a Winner.

Reno's favorite horse, Sensation, continues to gladden the hearts of his owners as well as filling their purses by his wonderful performances. Today, one of his owners, Frank Lee, received a dispatch from Susanville which stated that the gray had again shown his heels to the Pumas wonder, Victor, in a race at the Susanville Fair to-day, beating him with ease in three straight heats. Time, 2:23 1/2, 2:22, 2:23 1/2.

"The Madonna at the Tab."

Of whom Miss Phelps writes, was a genuine specimen of health and strength. She doubtless heeded the warnings of her predecessors, and understood and appreciated the matchless qualities of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which relieves and cures so many ailments peculiar to the sex. As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages, in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, "Favorite Prescription" is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an earthy cordial and restorative tonic. For constipation, sick or bilious headache, use Dr. Pierce's Peppermint, or Antibilious Granules. Purely vegetable. One a dose.

When the system is debilitated by disease, it should be strengthened and renewed with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine invariably proves itself worthy of all that can be said in its favor. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicine. Price 50c. All bottles 25c.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Free votes will beat Free Trade every time.
A poll of Ohio indicates a majority for Harrison of 30,000.

This is a great country, but it is not big enough to divide its trade with England—not this year or in this election.

Blaine received in 1884, 4,911,017 votes; Cleveland, 4,948,334, or 62,063 more votes than Blaine, in about ten millions of ballots.

Alonso Sprague, Superintendent of Smith & Allen's oil wells at Bradford, Penn., heretofore a straight Democrat, has joined the great Republican procession.

The New York street-car drivers, who all voted for Cleveland in 1884, will, says the New York Post (Mugwump), cast their ballots this year for Harrison and Morton.

The New York World speaks pleasantly of Governor Hill's Mugwump associates as "the most unscrupulous gang of political bushwhackers that the Nineteenth century has produced."

In the town of Walpole, N. H., a correspondent of the Boston Journal reports that there are at least 125 Irish-American citizens, heretofore Democratic voters, who will vote for Harrison and Morton.

Douglas Sheppard, who has been a Democrat since childhood, writes this note to the Carversville, Ind., News: "Please state in your paper that I have determined to be a Republican from this time on."

The New York Sun (Dem.) deduces the obvious but solemnizing conclusion from the elections thus far held that "where the Republicans have been strong, they are if anything, stronger in 1888 than at any former time for years past."

Free wool, free salt and free lumber are all right, but glue must be protected. My friends have their money invested in glue, and men who vote for me work at making it. That's the way Frank Lawler sizes up the Tariff.—Philadelphia Press.

THE SUSANVILLE FAIR.

The Pumas Wonder Defeats Reno's Ned.

A press dispatch, dated the 26th instant, gives the following concerning the third day's programme at the Susanville Fair:
An Indian-pony race took place at 9 o'clock this morning—a mile dash. It created much merriment. Eighteen ponies started, and at the outcome were strung out for half a mile.
The stock parade is conceded to have been very fine, extending for three-quarters of a mile.
The first race was pacing and trotting, for the 2:25 class, three in five. Ned and Victor started. Victor won in straight heats. Time, 2:26 1/2—2:28 1/2—2:28.

The second race was a special trot, three in five, between Engineer, Duster and Maxwell. Engineer won in straight heats. Time, 2:39 1/2—2:40—2:43 1/2.

The third race was running, three-quarters of a mile, free for all, between Baby Bunting, Lige Clark, San Louis Obispo and Al Farrow. The latter won. Time, 1:18 1/2.

In the fourth race, one and one-half miles, free for all, Haldee, Snuffbox and Ottava started. Haldee won. Time, 2:47.

The fifth race was a mile dash between Blue Bonnet, Lige Clark and Al Farrow. Al Farrow won. Time, 1:44.

1840-1888.

The Republican newspapers with a history extending back to 1840, find in their old files many sentiments and mottoes highly applicable to this campaign. The Hartford, Conn., Courant finds in its columns for 1840 these phrases, copied from transparencies in a wig procession:
"Protection to Industry the People's Right."
"Matty's (Van Buren) policy: 'Fifty cents a day and French soup.' Our policy: 'Two dollars a day and roast beef.'"
"One Presidential Term—A Protecting Tariff—A Sound Currency—A Well-Regulated Credit."
"The Fisherman, the Farmer, the Mechanic, the Laborer, all have suffered, all are aroused."
The same issues are in this campaign that gave life to that of forty-eight years ago.

A Cattle Depot for Reno.

Walter C. Weedon, Secretary of the Inter-State Galloway Cattle Company, has finished his mission in this vicinity and to-morrow will leave for Winnemucca, and from there will proceed to Kansas City. During his stay here Mr. Weedon investigated the surroundings and prospects of Reno and has come to the conclusion that this point is admirably adapted for a depot for fine cattle. He is very much impressed with the outlook, and upon his return home will endeavor to interest his associates in the company in starting a depot here for the sale of thoroughbred animals of every description. Weedon is a live, enterprising and progressive man, and the Galloway trusts that his scheme will bear fruit.

Eat With Comfort and be Happy.

It is by no means uncertain, but, on the contrary, a well ascertained fact, that upon the well being of man's stomach depends that modicum of happiness which is vouchsafed to him in this world. Dyspepsia, the foe of all others to the stomach's tranquility, and most to be dreaded, is a complaint to the preliminary relief and eventual cure of which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted. It enables those who use it with a reasonable degree of persistence to eat with relish, because it imparts a healthful appetite; to digest with ease, because it strengthens the stomach; and to assimilate the food which is eaten and digested, thus benefitting health, promoting flesh and sustaining the exercise of the physical and mental faculties. It, moreover, facilitates the secretion of healthy bile, acts without discomfort the habit of body, and tends, when taken upon retiring, to produce healthy slumber. Malaria is conquered by it.

Fryer's Abiesene Cough Balm is guaranteed to give immediate relief in Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and all affections of the Throat. Price 75c. Sold by Wm. Wagner. All genuine Abiesene preparations bear the Seal of the Dispensary of D. F. Fryer.

METROPOLITAN PALACES.

The Splendors of European Luxury Opened to the People of the Empire City.

There is a little story connected with the house occupied by Secretary Whitney which illustrates a peculiar phase of New York life. It was formerly the residence of Mrs. Frederick W. Stevens. She is the daughter of one of the old auctioneers of New York; named Sampson who died years ago, leaving her an income of four hundred thousand dollars a year. She married Frederick Stevens, who was a poor lawyer, and several children were born to them. They lived in comparative happiness until in an unlucky moment she received a visit from the Marquis de Talleyrand, a grandson of the celebrated political trickster of the great Napoleon's day. The talk of society concerning the seductions entailed by the auctioneer's daughter for the titled Frenchman need not be repeated, but the gossip did not fail to remark that not long after the return of the Marquis de Talleyrand to France the auctioneer's daughter decided that there was something in the climate of Europe, especially of France, absolutely essential to the preservation of her health. She went to Europe, leaving her husband here, and for several years, it is stated, maintained relations with the great French nobleman, who, in return, which need not be particularized. Then she came back to this country, and in a wonderful court at Newport obtained a divorce from her husband on the ground of neglect and incompatibility of temperament. This legal miracle accomplished, she returned to France and became the wife of the Marquis de Talleyrand. The father of this model French guest to introduce into American homes, was too poor to properly maintain his dual title, and he therefore relinquished it in favor of his son, who had been successful in snaring a rich and ambitious woman in the matrimonial waters, and now the auctioneer's daughter is a duchess of France. To be sure the title only goes back to the First Napoleon, who manufactured titles in order to fill up his upstart court, but the lady is nevertheless a duchess.

Her New York palace occupied four lots at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fifty-seventh Street, where ordinary gravel is about as valuable as gold dust. When she finally took up her abode in Paris she offered the residence for sale, and it was bought by J. P. Morgan, one of the Standard Oil Corporation, for six hundred thousand dollars. He presented it to his sister, the wife of the present Secretary of the Navy. And it may be added that on the birth of Mrs. Whitney's first child, he presented to the mother, to be had in trust for the youngest, the sum of one million dollars. Secretary Whitney's palatial home in New York is said to be furnished in princely style. But the most luxuriously furnished home on the continent is that of Wm. K. Vanderbilt, at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fifty-second Street. The houses of the Astors, in respect to artistic decoration and refined luxury, are distinctly inferior to those of many people of far less wealth. A few years ago there were only two or three notable dwellings in New York. They were double mansions, that is, houses with a frontage of at least fifty feet, with a depth of from one to two hundred feet—and the houses of the Astors, which were the most magnificent of the kind, but now they are behind the swift pace of the times. Other millionaires are reaching Europe for better and for ill. American financiers are despoiling the feudal palaces of Europe for costly souvenirs of vanished epochs to furnish the more splendid palaces reared by America's commercial greatness.

THE EDITOR IS SUED.

A Shrewd Move on the Part of His Enemies.

"Our amiable and gentlemanly Sheriff entered our office day before yesterday in his usual urbane manner and announced that he must serve papers on us.

"It was a notice of a breach-of-promise suit against us by the Widow Clixby, who alleges that we have been toying with her heart-strings, and that it will take $5,000 of our cash to settle her thoughts back into the old channel.

"It is another move on the part of our enemies to down us.

"We first met the Widow Clixby twenty-eight days ago in Carter's grocery. She asked our opinion of her dress and we asked her hers of soap. She invited us to call at the house and see some poetry she had written on the rise and fall of the masondon.

"We complied. We called there three or four times afterwards, but only as a friend.

"On one occasion the widow showed us a clipping from an Eastern paper to the effect that it was better for a man who had passed the age of twenty-three to marry a widow, if he was to marry, but we didn't bite.

"We know our gait. If the Widow Clixby can prove to the world that we have toyed with her affections we'll cheerfully go to jail.

"We are not on the toy. The widow will find us no Jacob rabbit, and the enemies who have encouraged this new move may hear something drop before the trial is over."—Arizona Kicker.

WAR OF THE UNION.

A correspondent of the New York Sun writes: "I noticed in the Sun a few weeks ago a question by a correspondent as to the nativity of the men comprising the army during the rebellion.

Cramped for Room.

Saturday night in Chicago is one of the busiest nights in the week.

"I say, my friend," remarked a policeman to a citizen who was resting his head against a curbstone, "don't you think a lamp post would look a little more respectable than this sort of thing?"

"Help me (hic), citizen," replied the citizen earnestly. "I tried seven lamp posts and (hic) found 'em all occupied."

Send to Dan the Senate.

Senatorial five-minute speeches are timed by an old-fashioned time glass.

When a Senator at Washington begins his remarks the glass is turned so that the sands begin to run. When the last grain drops the clock strikes and the Senator's speech is cut off short.

Wary of Well-Being.

An England street 8-year-old-male, who has this early evidence of growth, is of working hard to be good, under his little power thus the other night:

"Jenny, God, make me a good girl without my helping!"—St. Louis Dispatch.
